CITIZENS ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBER REPORTS

Ruth Rawlinson mentioned that the property that the old school house is on is up for sale and demolition. Patricia Angelotti owns the property on 155 S. Coyote. There is a request to have this building moved to a County owned lot in Goodsprings. The Historical Society is interested in preserving it. Meggan will check to see if there is any Community Grant or State money available.

PLANNING AND ZONING

None

STAFF REPORTS

1. Metro – none
2. County Liaison - Meggan talked to Metro regarding ATV's. Metro said to make calls about problems so they can have a record of complaints. They will try to come through Goodsprings more often.
Meggan printed ownership maps of the area.
We will get a second rolling rack for the chairs and round tables when funding is available.
Dan Rubio said the Pioneer Saloon septic is not legal. Some things have been added that are not in compliance. These problems are being worked on to fix.
3. BLM Comprehensive Plan – Liz Warren will provide.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Colleen Hicks asked who bought the property bordering her property. They have been crossing her property to enter the back of their property. She can put a pad lock on the gate.

People are parking across the street from the bar on private property.
